The Opportunity Gap represents the difference between retail sales in specific categories of goods and services where reported demand (purchases by consumers living in an area) exceeds reported sales by merchants (supply) within the same defined trade area. Data is derived from the Consumer Expenditure Survey as administered by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics and from the Census of Retail Trade, made available through the U.S. Census.

About the City of Enid

Located in north central Oklahoma, Enid is a recognized micropolitan community. Enid is situated at the nexus of several four-lane, divided US highways and Interstate 35 is 28 miles to the east. Existing retail in Enid thrives, and new businesses are locating in Enid as they discover the unique advantages of the area, including a location that pulls shoppers from as far away as Woodward, OK and Kansas. Few other retail options exist within 50 miles of Enid, making the consumer draw significantly higher than other communities of comparable size. Home to Vance Air Force Base and the defacto choice for healthcare and retail for the region, Enid's location make sense for retail and restaurant tenants.

The City of Enid's public and private sectors work together to create a supportive environment that encourages business success. As a result, companies experience a low-cost, hassle-free, collaborative approach to doing business in the community. Focused on retail growth, Enid offers incentives for projects fitting the city's timeframe and identified needs.
